

Stream No. 29 (1 notice) N.W. side Chenega Island.
Is 10 feet wide and 4 inches deep.

There is a lagoon or lake here, that it would take a 9-foot tide to put salt water in.

The stream bed above lagoon is fine gravel, and is accessible and occupied by fish for a distance of 1,300 feet.

There were 25 red salmon in the stream above lagoon.
Has a high falls and no lake above it.

3,500 humpbacks here.

Another small stream under same markers had 1,000
fish.

Aug. 20 visit: 4,500 humps; 25 reds. (1926)

Aug. 25, 1927 visit: 11,000 humps, 14 reds.

Stream No. 30 (1 notice) N.W. end Chenega Island.
Is 12 feet wide and 6 inches deep.

The first 200 feet from high tide line is rough rocks with fine gravel between them, then it splits into 3 parts.

All have fine gravel bottom.

The south (main) one accessible for more than 2,700 feet.
North one 2,000 feet.

3,000 fish covers all here (Visit Aug. 20, 1926)

Visit Aug. 26th, 1927: 20,645 fish.

Stream No. 30A (No notice) S.E. end Chenega Island
Lagoon on east side stream.

At head is 6 feet wide and 2 inches deep.

Has a good, fine-gravel bottom near mouth. Upstream rough boulders.

Is accessible 2,600 feet in wet weather.

Had 2,570 fish Sept. 2, 1927.

Another lagoon on west side.

Has a small stream with coarse gravel and boulder bed.

Had 800 fish.

Total 3,370 fish, Sept. 2, 1926.